Sir / Madam,

Free Occupational Safety & Health Courses

In order to raise the occupational safety & health awareness of employers & employees, the Occupational Health Service of Labour Department (LD) organizes free occupational safety & health (OSH) courses regularly at the Kwun Tong Occupational Safety & Health Centre. Information on courses to be held in January – June 2018 is now available. The information and application form can be downloaded from LD's website (<http://www.labour.gov.hk/eng/osh/content6.htm>).

If you want to obtain a hardcopy of the course booklet, please inform us by email (ohs-hq@labour.gov.hk) or fax: 2581 2049 and state your company's name and address for the booklet to be mailed to you; or obtain the booklet in person at the Occupational Health Service, 15/F Harbour Building, 38 Pier Road, Central or at the Occupational Safety & Health Centre, G/F Kwun Tong Community Health Centre Building, 60 Hip Wo Street, Kwun Tong. Your feedback on our OSH courses by email or fax is also welcome.

Yours faithfully,

(KO Lai-fong)

for Commissioner for Labour
